

RULE 27. TIME BEGINS AND ENDS. In all classes of road service other than passenger, conductors' and brakemen's time will commence at the time they are required to report for duty, and shall continue until the time they are relieved from duty. The management will designate the time for reporting for duty.